

January 15, 2016

To EW Scripps Clients:

RE: 2016 W-9 Distribution

The EW Scripps Company went through a legal entity restructuring which took effect January 1, 2016. As a result of this restructuring, clients that previously made payments to one of the Journal Broadcast legal entities will now make payments to a Scripps legal entity and will therefore need to be provided with a new W-9.

The specific detail on the impact of this is outlined below.

NEW W-9's – Journal Broadcast entities (except Las Vegas market):

If you previously relied upon W-9 for one of the following entities, this television or radio station now falls under Scripps Media, Inc. with the EIN 31-0934851.

Journal Broadcast Group of Tennessee, Inc.

EIN 62-1198241

Journal Broadcast Group, Inc.

EIN 39-1923370

Journal Broadcast Group of Kansas, Inc.

EIN 48-0870214

Newschannel 5 Network, LLC

EIN 62-1763744

NEW W-9's – Journal Broadcast Corporation (Las Vegas market):

If you previously relied upon W-9 for Journal Broadcast Corporation for purchases made in the Las Vegas market, this entity had a name change effective January 1, 2016 but will continue under the same EIN. As such, see attached new W-9 for Scripps Broadcasting Holdings, LLC EIN 39-1178041 (formerly Journal Broadcast Corporation).

These new W-9's can also be accessed on the external Scripps.com website under Investors/Financial Reports and Filings/IRS Documents.

If you have questions, please direct them to CustomerService@scripps.com

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.